REFUND GUIDELINES:

100% refunds will be issued if notice is given 7 days prior from the start date of a class. After a class has begun a prorated refund will be given if the player must discontinue due to medical reasons and with physician documentation.

After a team invitation is accepted if the player chooses not to play with the team before the season begins, one third of the total fee will be held as a nonrefundable deposit and the remaining payment will be refunded. If the player has been registered on a payment plan the first payment will be held as a nonrefundable deposit and the payment plan will be canceled. The player will no longer be considered for PARADISE teams in the future. The only exception is for medical reasons with physician documentation.
